Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-20, drawn to an apparatus comprising two or more sterile environments.

Group II, claim(s) 21, drawn to a peripheral sterile environment.

Group III, claim(s) 22, drawn to a window unit.

Group IV, claim(s) 23, drawn to a glove carrier.

Group V, claim(s) 24, drawn to a flexible membrane.

Group VI, claim(s) 25, drawn to an isolation-operating environment.

Group VII, claim(s) 26-28, drawn to a surgical drape.

Group VIII, claim(s) 29, drawn to a method of connecting.

Group IX, claim(s) 30, drawn to a method of providing.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IX do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group V, drawn to a flexible membrane is either anticipated by or obvious over US 5,345,946. US 5,345,946 teaches a flexible membrane (X)(50) for confining a sterile environment, there being provided a bactericidal substance such as an adhesive or bactericidal adhesive tape (Y)(80, column 6 lines 29-34) which extends over or around a region of membrane which region is adapted to be opened or ruptured to define an opening (Z)(66) in membrane in use. Group VII, drawn to a surgical drape is either anticipated by or obvious over US 4,275,719. US 4,275,719 teaches a surgical drape (X) having an initially sealed opening (Y) and provided with bactericidal treated adhesive or adhesive tape (Z) adjacent said opening for joining said drape with a further sterile environment in use (column 1 lines 32-42). Therefore, there is no special technical feature that defines a contribution over the prior art.

From MPEP 1850:

Lack of unity of invention may be directly evident "a priori," that is, before considering the claims in relation to any prior art, or may only become apparent "a posteriori," that is, after taking the prior art into consideration. For example, independent claims to A + X, A + Y, X + Y can be said to lack unity a priori as there is no subject matter common to all claims. In the case of independent claims to A + X and A + Y, unity of invention is present a priori as A is common to both claims. However, if it can be established that A is known, there is lack of unity a posteriori, since A (be it a single feature or a group of features) is not a technical feature that defines a contribution over the prior art.

MPEP 1850 also states that "Unity of invention has to be considered in the first place only in relation to the independent claims in an international application and not the dependent claims." [emphasis added].

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tarla R. Patel whose telephone
